Title I Teacher presides over the meeting with an agenda and the required information, which will be thoroughly explained. This information includes: the building's Title I Parent Involvement Policy, which is approved as is or modified; the building's Annual Title I Review; testing information; Reading Website, Parent Web Sites, seek input on Federal Programs and information about Title I Parent Resources.

Parents are asked to sign in to verify a meeting was held and participants were present. Each Title I Teacher will be available to explain how they serve their Title I children. Parents are also provided with instructional strategies and/or ideas that they can use with their children at home to help us ensure academic progress.
